Rules of Etiquette for Church-Gosers.

Never enter church till the services are half over; or, if before, stalk right in in the middle of the opening prayer, when you will attract the most attention and better display your stock of dry goods.

Every time anyone enters, turn your head around and take a good, square look.

Before leaving home be sure to fill your pockets with nuts and candies—if not convenient, apples are a good substitute—of which occasionally partake. It will prove an infallible safeguard against sleep, and besides is much less annoying to your neighbors than snoring.

Occasionally permit your hymn-book to fall on the floor—if a lady, it will give your companion employment, and also let people know that you are still there.

If your neighbor's bonnet does not sit just right, take it upon yourself to adjust it aright, and you will thereby confer a lasting favor.

If Simpkin's wife comes in wearing her bonnet "hind-end" foremost, look at her and smile, and then nudge your neighbor with your elbow, and whisper it to her, so that she can enjoy the joke and rejoice with you.

If anyone should be so unfortunate as to slip on entering the auditorium, titter out loud.

In taking sacrament, sit erect, throwing your head a little back, and you will thus avoid putting your nose into the cup.

It is the express duty of every mother to bring her baby with her, notwithstanding the bad disposition it may have, for such is the kingdom of heaven.

Ladies should provide themselves with a little book, and jot down all of the new departures in fashion.

After services, it is the duty of the ladies to kiss every other lady in the congregation, and a like duty falls upon the gentlemen to kiss every baby present, and to tell each and every mama that her darling is the cutest little thing on earth. A breach of this rule is unpardonable.

Gentlemen on entering the church should always remove the luscious quid, and hide it under a fence stake or some other equally safe and convenient place (it is well to mark the spot with a notch or some other private mark, for we have heard of such a thing as a mistake, and on leaving replace it. The road to wealth is economy.

Dying Before a Mirror.

Hangar Me., White, Jan. 7. Peculiar circumstances attended the death of a man in Lewistown a few days ago. The man was Mr. Lawrence Eccles, a native of England, who lost his voice over a year ago, and who did not speak a word until the night previous to his death. He awoke his wife before morning, shouting and laughing. When it became light he made his friends put him on a sofa and wheel him into the sitting room. "Now, I want you to put me before the looking glass so I can see myself die," he said. His friends poked about at the idea, but had to comply with his request. He told his hands before his breast, turned his face toward the mirror, and in a few moments was dead.

BUCKLE'S ARNICA SALVE. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Chapped hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all kinds of skin eruptions. This Salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box.

MARK TWAIN has had his fortune told by a celebrated stargazer, and here is the result—Mark says if she has hit the future as well as she has the past, his happiness is complete: "You are not in the beginning, a criminal nature, but circumstances changed it. At the age of nine you stole sugar; at 15 you stole money; at 20 you stole horses; at 25 you committed arson; at 30—hardened criminal, you became an editor. Since then your descent has been rapid. You are now a public lecturer. Worse things are in store for you—you will be sent to Congress; next to the penitentiary, and then, finally, happiness will come to you again, all will be well—you will be hanged."

Put it to Proof. At a time when the community is flooded with so many unworthy devices and concoctions, it is refreshing to find one that is beneficial and pure. So conscious are the proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, of the worth of their remedy, that they offer all who desire a trial bottle free of charge. This certainly would be disingenuous if they did not the remedy possess the remarkable curative qualities claimed. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will positively cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Subacute Coughs, Colds, Phthisis, Quinsy, Hoarseness, Croup, or any affection of the throat and lungs. As you value your existence give this wonderful remedy a trial by calling on Hubbard & Swearingin, druggists, and obtaining a trial bottle free of cost, or a regular size bottle for $1.00.

J. W. Tyler Out of Business. I take this method of informing the public generally and my old patrons in city and country in particular, that I am now out of business, having disposed of my stock of harness, saddles, bridles, etc. All parties indebted to me are requested to call at once at Walters & Tyler's drug store, south side city park, where the accounts may be found and where settlements may be made. I desire in conclusion to return my thanks to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me in the past, and as I will soon re-open in the harness business, I hope by square dealing and good work to merit and receive a continuation of the same. Respectfully,

J. W. TYLER.

Getting Even with the Coachman.
It is related that on the occasion of a large party Mrs. Chase-Sprague sent for her coachman and told him that she expected him either to open the door or assist in the cloak room. The coachman immediately answered that he was hired to drive the horse and not to help in the house. "Very well," said Mrs.
Sprague, "have my carriage at the door at 8 o'clock." At 8 o'clock the carriage drove up. "Blanket the horses and wait until I need further word." From 8 o'clock of a chill winter evening until 2 o'clock of a colder morning the coachman sat with stiffening arms on his box, and when the last guest had gone his orders came to drive to the stable.

HERE is a sum for the boys and girls, work it out and you will learn something more than the figures teach. Henry was asked "How many boys are there in your class?" He said: "If you multiply the number of Jacob's sons by the number of times which the Israelites compassed Jericho and add to the product the number of measures of barley which Boaz gave Ruth, divide this by the number of Haman's sons, subtract the number of each kind of clean beasts that went into the ark, multiply by the number of men that went to seek Elijah after he was taken to heaven; subtract from this Joseph's age at the time he stood before Pharaoh, and the number of stones in David's bag when he killed Goliath, subtract the number of furlongs that Bethany was distant from Jerusalem, divide by the number of anchors cast out when Paul was shipwrecked, subtract the number of persons saved in the ark, and the remainder will be the answer."
